The Cursillo Movement offers a method of spiritual growth and commitment. Cursillo is supported entirely by donations from the presenting team and the participants. On the weekend the leader will advise you of the suggested donation to cover the cost of participation (lodging, meals and supplies). Donations received are a private matter between you and God. No one is pressured to make a donation and you should not hesitate to attend because of finances. The Cursillo weekend runs from Thursday evening through Sunday evening. A letter will notify you if you are accepted and your sponsor and a Cursillo team member will contact you prior to the weekend.

If you have any questions, your sponsor will be glad to answer them or call 228-382-3215.

REMINDER:

Please get your Palanca in early! Palanca for entire Cursillo Weekend (Candidates & Team) is requested while letters to individuals are discouraged.

What is Palanca? What is a Palanca? A Palanca letter is one that is sent to the Cursillo Weekend (Candidates & Team), informing them of prayers and sacrifices that you are offering to God on their behalf. A letter may be sent explaining what type of Palanca is being offered, but the letter is NOT the Palanca. The actual Palanca is the action – intercessory prayer, sacrifice or works of mercy, and can be done without writing a letter. You may e-mail Palanca Letters to: palanca@southms-cursillo.org
